The Board of Commissioners (“BOC”) hereby enacts this Lease Purchase Policy (“Policy”) in order to set forth the policies and procedures applicable to the Lease Purchase Homeownership Program (“Program”) of the HASNOK, as well as previous homeownership programs of the HASNOK, as more fully described below. 2. A document to provide consistent, equitable and uniform treatment of clients and Applicants; and
3. A basis for decision-making by staff.

C. Interpretation; Applicability. The Participant shall be notified, by certified mail with return receipt requested, and given the opportunity to be present at the inspection. If the Participant has not corrected the deficiencies, the lease agreement may be terminated in accordance with this Policy, or the HASNOK may perform the necessary work and charge the Participant’s account.

5. Move-out Inspections. A move-out inspection will be conducted by the HASNOK within three (3) business days of the date of termination of occupancy. 6. Other Inspections. The HASNOK may inspect the unit at any other time for any reasonable purpose. ## SECTION 9

EXAMINATION AND RE-EXAMINATION OF PARTICIPANT STATUS

A. Re-examination Procedure. For the purpose of determining the base rent, the HASNOK shall examine the Participant household's earnings and other income prior to initial occupancy and shall re-examine such income at least once a year thereafter.

1. Re-examination Schedule. The Participant's "re-examination schedule" shall coincide with the date of the effective date of initial occupancy. The re-examination process shall commence at least two (2) months prior to the effective date to allow sufficient time for HASNOK staff to verify all information provided by the Participant(s). The Participant will be notified of the need to re-certify and to set a date/time for the re-certification interview. Monthly payments shall not be adjusted between dates of annual re-examination except as provided in Section 9(B), below.

Failure to report these changes in circumstance to the HASNOK, could, at the discretion of the BOC, result in eviction.

2. Adjustments. Any Participant who reports a change in family circumstances (such as a decrease in income or a change in family composition) shall be given an interim income determination and, upon verification, the base rent shall be adjusted.
3. Effective Date of Adjustment. Adjustments to base rent are to be made effective on the first day of the month following the income change, provided that no downward adjustments are to be processed until the alleged changes in circumstance have been substantiated.

C. Verification and Documentation of Re-examination Data. To assure that the data upon which determinations as to eligibility for continued occupancy and changes in base rent are made (either by scheduled re-examination or an interim re-examination) are complete and accurate, the information submitted by the Participant household shall be verified. Verification procedures are the same as those described in Section 4(C), above.

D. Action Required Following Re-examination. Within thirty (30) days of receiving the personal declaration and all required supporting documentation, the HASNOK shall notify the family in writing of: (1) any change to be made in the tenant's rent payment and the effective date thereof; (2) any changes to the HASNOK policy and the effective date thereof; and/or (3) any instances of misrepresentation or non-compliance with the program policy, HUD regulations or other applicable law and of any corrective or punitive action which is to be taken.

E. Failure to Comply With Annual Re-examination. If the Participant(s) fail to respond to the letter requesting re-certification information, a written notice, by certified mail with return receipt requested, will be mailed with a deadline for submission of information. If the Participant(s) fail to provide the information requested by the due date, it shall be deemed a violation of this Policy, which may result in termination of program participation. In addition, Participant(s) who fail to report upward changes in income may be liable for additional amounts due the HASNOK. Participant(s) who fail to report downward changes in income within a reasonable time period shall not be entitled to any retroactive adjustment of rent.

SECTION 10

SUB-LEASING

A. Approval Requirement; Duration. The HASNOK, in its sole discretion, may approve the sub-leasing of a program unit for a period of up to six (6) months. A one-time extension for an additional six (6) months may be granted upon proper application by the Participant(s).

B. Grounds. In order to sub-lease the unit, Participant(s) must demonstrate to the satisfaction of the HASNOK that they are unable to continue to occupy the unit as their primary residence due to relocation for one or more the following reasons:

1. Employment;
2. Higher Education;
3. Medical treatment or illness; and/or
4. Military Duty

C. Application for Sub-Lease. The request to sub-lease the unit must be in writing and state the reason for the request and the expected duration of the sub-lease. Additionally, the sub-lessee must submit to an investigation by the HASNOK as to the sub-lessee's suitability as a member of the community. The investigation shall specifically address whether the sub-lessee will detrimentally affect the health, welfare, and/or safety of the community and the sub-lessee's willingness to comply with the HASNOK policies.

D. Additional Requirements. In order to sub-lease his/her assigned unit, the Participant must be in full compliance with his/her lease agreement and all other conditions of program participation set forth in this Policy.

E. Form of Sub-Lease. The sub-lease shall be in a form prescribed by the HASNOK and shall be executed in triplicate original by a HASNOK representative, the Participant(s) and the sub-lessee(s). Each party to the sub-lease shall receive a fully executed copy of the agreement.

F. Sub-Lease Payment. The Participant's base rent will continue to be calculated based on the Participant-household's adjusted income.

G. Participant's Obligation. Sub-leasing does not waive or otherwise exempt the Participant(s) from any other requirements or obligations of this Policy or the lease agreement. Failure to comply with any term or provision of this Policy may result in termination of the sub-lease and/or termination of the Participant's lease in accordance with Section 14 of this Policy.

CONVEYANCE

A. Conveyance Eligibility. A unit shall be eligible for conveyance to the Participant(s), and the HASNOK shall convey such unit, when the Participant(s) have met all of the obligations of participation in the Program set forth in this Policy and a minimum of twenty-five (25) years have elapsed from the date of initial occupancy of the Participant (or of the initial occupant in the case of succession). The minimum compliance period may vary on a case-by-case basis, depending upon payment suspensions, deferments, delinquencies, or other factors. The unit shall be conveyed to the tribal member(s)/citizen(s)/Freedmen who initially qualified for program participation based in part on such citizenship, regardless of whether the lease agreement also was executed by a spouse or co-habitant.

B. Conveyance Procedure. When the balance owed on the program unit equals $1,000.00 or less (and/or the 25-year compliance period has elapsed unless extended pursuant to this Policy), the HASNOK shall provide the Participant(s) with written notice of the anticipated payoff by certified mail with return receipt requested. The notice shall include, at a minimum: a statement of the balance owed, the approximate date of payoff, and an estimate of all required charges, fees, and costs to be paid by the Participant(s) at the time of settlement. The HASNOK representative shall prepare all of the necessary documents and perform all required actions to enable the home to be conveyed. Once the Participant has paid off the balance of the home and other necessary settlement costs, notification shall be made to the Participant of the closing date. At the closing, the Participant and a duly authorized representative of the HASNOK shall execute all of the required documents and legal instruments necessary to effectuate the conveyance of title to the unit. The Participant shall receive a copy of the settlement statement detailing all charges and a copy of the warranty deed or other instrument of conveyance.

SUCCESSION

The program unit is the sole property of the HASNOK and shall not be considered part of a Participant's estate. Therefore, Participants are prohibited from listing the property or an interest in the property in a will. Additionally, HASNOK shall not recognize any will provisions concerning the property.

Participants, however, are allowed to list a preferred successor to the Lease Agreement with HASNOK. The designation and selection of a successor shall be controlled by this Section.

A. Manner of Designation. Each Participant shall designate a successor at the time the Lease Agreement is executed. The designation may be changed at any time, provided that such changes are made in writing.

B. Events Authorizing Successorship. In the event of death, physical or mental incapacity, the person designated as successor shall succeed to the rights and responsibilities of the participant, provided that all eligibility and program requirements are met.

C. Situations When Successorship will not be Recognized. The designated successor shall not succeed if the Lease Agreement is terminated for any reason other than death, physical, or mental incapacity.

D. Eligibility of Successor. The designated successor must meet all eligibility and selection requirements at the time the new Lease Agreement is executed. The unit must be a principal residence of the successor and/or first time assistance only.

E. Ineligible Successors. In the event that the successor is not eligible or otherwise qualified to succeed the original participant, the HASNOK may allow the successor to purchase the unit for an amount established by fair market.

F. HASNOK Designation of Successor. If the designated successor is not eligible or does not meet admission standards, the HASNOK shall designate a successor or place the next eligible family from the waiting list into the program unit.

G. Succession to Rights and Obligations. The designated successor shall assume all rights and obligations of the former participant, including all outstanding amounts owed and any amounts in the equity account.

H. Minor Children Occupying Home. After the occurrence of death, physical, or mental incapacity when there is no qualified and eligible successor, the HASNOK may approve an adult who has been appointed legal guardian of the children as an occupant of the home. The guardian shall be responsible for performing the duties and obligations of the Lease Agreement on behalf of the children. This arrangement will remain intact until the oldest child reaches the age of eighteen (18) years, at which time that person may become the head of household, if qualified. If at any time prior to the oldest child reaching the age of eighteen (18) years, the guardian is no longer willing and able to perform the obligations and duties of the agreement, and no other guardian is appointed, possession of the home shall revert to the HASNOK.

I. Trust, Restricted, or Special Consideration of the Land Status. In case of trust, restricted, or special land considerations, the HASNOK shall review applicable statutes and requirements prior to approving a successor or designating a subsequent participant. Only a presumptive heir will be considered as a subsequent participant in the case of trust, restricted, or special land considerations. The Lease Agreement may be modified to accommodate any special considerations.

J. Equity, MEPA and Purchase Price Schedule (Mutual Help). There will be no interruption or change in the amortization schedule due to succession of the home. All rights and obligations, including equity accounts, shall be transferred to the subsequent participant.

K. Special Provision Regarding Divorce. The Participant(s) shall notify the HASNOK in writing within five (5) days of the filing of a divorce action, and such notice shall advise the HASNOK that an action has been filed, the jurisdiction of the proceeding and the case number. The program unit is the sole property of the HASNOK and shall not be considered part of the parties' marital estate. The Participant who initially qualified for participation in the Program shall continue to occupy the unit, and the other party shall vacate the unit within ten (10) days of the filing of the final decree of divorce. If the Participant is unable or unwilling to continue to occupy the unit, the other party may purchase the unit from the HASNOK. The purchase price shall be an amount established by fair market. If both parties initially met all requirements for program participation (i.e., both parties are qualified Native American members/citizens/Freedmen), the HASNOK may reassign the unit to one of the parties per the following factors:

- 1, Custodial arrangements for minor children;
2. Whether the unit is on a donated land site and, if so, whether the adjoining land remains in the possession of one party's extended family; and
3. Each party's respective ability to satisfy all terms and conditions of Program participation, including financial and maintenance obligations.

SECTION 13

TRANSFERS

A. Approval Requirements. The Lease-Purchase Program is designed to foster homeownership, and pride thereof, among all Participants. Therefore, transfer of units is discouraged. However, the BOC may approve a transfer of a unit on a case-by-case basis, subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. The Participants shall have lived in their respective units for no less than five (5) years before a transfer will be considered;
2. The request shall be made in writing and all applicable requirements for transfer and admission must be satisfied by both parties before approval will be granted;
3. Both Participant households must be current on their rent payments and compliant with all provisions of this Policy and all other applicable rules, regulations and/or policies of HASNOK;
4. The Participants requesting the transfer shall perform necessary maintenance to restore the unit being vacated to satisfactory condition. The parties shall agree to accept, in writing, the unit to be assigned for occupancy in the existing condition at the time the transfer is approved;
5. Each transferring Participant shall execute a mutual release of lease for the dwelling being vacated and shall execute a new lease agreement for the dwelling to be occupied, on the agreed effective date of reassignment; and
6. A move-in inspection shall be conducted and signed by the transferring Participants and a representative of the HASNOK to establish a record of the condition of the unit at the time of initial occupancy.

B. Limitations. Vacant units must be offered to any and all eligible Applicant(s) on the waiting list for the Program before a transfer request from a Participant can be approved.

C. Purchase Price Schedule. All rights and obligations of Program participation shall be transferred to the new unit. The purchase price shall be the remaining balance owed on the home for which occupancy is assumed as of the effective date of the transfer.

SECTION 14

TERMINATION OF OCCUPANCY

A. Termination by the Participant. The Participant may terminate the lease agreement, provided that thirty (30) days written notice is given in writing to the HASNOK. The HASNOK does not waive any claim to additional payments due for accrued rent and/or damages to the unit by accepting such notice.

B. Procedures upon Termination of Occupancy. Participant(s) shall provide the HASNOK at least thirty (30) days written notice prior to moving out of their assigned unit, unless such notice requirement is waived in writing by the HASNOK. A move-out inspection shall be conducted within three (3) days of termination of occupancy. Participant(s) who move out of their assigned unit without conveying proper notice to the HASNOK will be considered to have abandoned the premises and may be responsible for damages sustained by the unit while vacant and/or any legal fees or costs incurred by the HASNOK to regain possession of the unit.

C. Grounds. Participant(s) may be subject to termination of occupancy and Program participation for reasons including, but not limited to, the following:

1. Non-payment of rent or installment payments pursuant to a Pay-back Agreement;
2. The acquisition or occupancy of another home or failure to continue to use the program unit as the family's principal residence;
3. Failure to comply with income reexamination requirements;
4. Misrepresentation of income, household composition or other material fact(s), regardless of whether the Lessee is or is not eligible to participate at the time the misrepresentation is discovered;
5. The Participant or any household member is convicted of a drug or alcohol related felony and/or of a violent crime felony;
6. The Participant or any household member is made subject to the registration requirements of the Oklahoma Sex Offenders Registration Act as set forth in Section 3(F) of this Policy;
7. More than three (3) unexcused absences from scheduled appointments with HASNOK staff for inspections, counseling, recertification, or any other purpose;
8. Failure to supply any requested certification, release, information, or documentation as the HASNOK determines to be necessary;
9. Moving and/or abandoning the Dwelling Unit without notice to the HASNOK;
10. Interference, obstruction or non-compliance with inspection requirements;

11. Other material violation of any term or provision of this Policy or other tribal, state, or federal law or regulation.

D. Termination for Non-Payment of Rent. Participants who fail to pay their monthly base rent, to pay any installment payment due pursuant to an approved payback agreement, or to enter into acceptable alternative payment arrangements shall be subject to termination from participation in the Program, as follows:

1. First Notice of Delinquency. When a Participant becomes delinquent with a payment, a First Notice of Delinquency shall be sent on the first business day after the tenth (10th) when rent is considered delinquent for the month in which the payment is due and shall state the following:
  - a. The date of the notice;
  - b. The date the monthly payment was due; and
  - c. The amount owed as of the date of the notice.
2. Final Notice of Delinquency. If no payments are received or no acceptable payment arrangements are made by the twentieth (20th) day of the month in which the payment is due, the HASNOK shall deliver by mail to the Participant the final notice of delinquency on the next business day. The final notice shall inform the Participant that he/she must pay the overdue balance on or before the first (1st) day of the next month to avoid eviction proceedings. The final notice shall also set a mandatory meeting with Participant and HASNOK staff. At said meeting, HASNOK staff shall provide Participant with financial education and counseling.
3. Notice of Intent to Cancel. If no payments are received or no acceptable payment arrangements are made on or before the first day of the month following the month when rent became due and owing, the HASNOK shall issue a Notice of Intent to Cancel. The Notice of Intent to Cancel shall state that the Participant(s) have 30 days within receipt of the Notice of Intent to Cancel to vacate the unit. The Notice of Intent to Cancel shall also state that the Participant(s) have 48 hours following receipt of the Notice to submit a Grievance Letter to the HASNOK Executive Director. If the Participant submits a Grievance Letter, the eviction process will be suspended pending resolution of the grievance.

- a. Upon receipt of a Grievance Letter received as a result of a Notice of Termination, the Executive Director shall schedule a grievance hearing with the Participant(s) within ten (10) days. At the Grievance Hearing, the Participant(s) can present evidence and testimony to the Executive Director that explains why the Lease should not be terminated. Following the hearing, the Executive Director shall decide whether the Lease should be terminated or not. Participant(s) shall be informed of the Executive Director's decision within 24 hours following the Grievance Hearing. If the Executive Director decides to terminate the Lease, Participant(s) shall vacate the unit by the date indicated in the Notice of Termination.
  - b. If Participant(s) disagrees with the decision of the Executive Director, Participant(s) can submit an Appeal Letter to the Board of Commissioners of the Housing Authority of the Seminole Nation of Oklahoma. The Appeal Letter must be submitted to HASNOK office within 48 hours following receipt of the Executive Director's decision regarding the grievance hearing. A Board of Commissioner's meeting shall be scheduled within ten (10) days following receipt of the Appeal Letter. At the Appeal Hearing, the Participant(s) can present evidence and testimony to the Board of Commissioners that explains why the Executive Director's decision should be overturned and why the Lease should not be terminated. Following the hearing, the Board of Commissioners shall decide whether to uphold the decision of the Executive Director or not. Participant(s) shall be informed of the Board of Commissioners' decision within 24 hours following the Appeal Hearing. The decision of the Board of Commissioners is final. If the Board of Commissioners decides to uphold the decision of the Executive Director, Participant(s) shall vacate the unit by the date indicated in the Notice of Termination.
4. Commencement of Eviction. If the Participant(s) fails to submit a Grievance Letter and do not vacate the unit by the date indicated in the Notice of Termination, if the Participant(s) fail to submit an Appeal Letter after an unfavorable decision by the Executive Director in regards to the Grievance Hearing and does not vacate the unit by the date indicated in the Notice of Termination, or if the Participant(s) does not vacate the unit by the date indicated in the Notice of Termination after receipt of the Board's Appeal Decision, the HASNOK shall commence termination and eviction procedures in a court of competent jurisdiction. The District Court of the Seminole Nation of Oklahoma and/or such other tribal court as the Seminole Nation may hereinafter establish shall be considered courts of competent jurisdiction for purposes of enforcement of this Policy.

E. Termination for Reasons Other Than Non-Payment of Rent. In the event of non-compliance with any of the provisions set forth in this Policy, other than for non-payment of rent, the HASNOK may terminate the Participant's lease as follows:

1. The HASNOK shall send a letter stating that the household is not in compliance with a specific provision of the Policy, describing the satisfactory means of resolving the violation and providing that such violation must be cured within ten (10) calendar days of the date of the notice.
2. If the Participant(s) do not cure the violation within the timeframe specified, the HASNOK shall issue a Notice of Termination. The Notice of Termination shall state that the Participant(s) have 30 days within receipt of the Notice of Termination to vacate the unit. The Notice of Termination shall also state that the Participant(s) have 48 hours following receipt of the Notice to submit a Grievance Letter to the HASNOK office. If the Participant(s) submits a Grievance Letter, the eviction process will be suspended pending resolution of the grievance.
  - a. Upon receipt of a Grievance Letter received as a result of a Notice of Termination, the Executive Director shall schedule a grievance hearing with the Participant(s) within ten (10) days. At the Grievance Hearing, the Participant(s) can present evidence and testimony to the Executive Director that explains why the Lease should not be terminated. Following the hearing, the Executive Director shall decide whether the Lease should be terminated or not. Participant(s) shall be informed of the Executive Director's decision within 24 hours following the Grievance Hearing. If the Executive Director decides to terminate the Lease, Participant(s) shall vacate the unit by the date indicated in the Notice of Termination.

- b. If Participant(s) disagree with the decision of the Executive Director, Participant(s) can submit an Appeal Letter to the Board of Commissioners of the Housing Authority of the Seminole Nation of Oklahoma. The Appeal Letter must be submitted to HASNOK office within 48 hours following receipt of the Executive Director's decision regarding the grievance hearing. A Board of Commissioner's meeting shall be scheduled within ten (10) days following receipt of the Appeal Letter. At the Appeal Hearing, the Participant(s) can present evidence and testimony to the Board of Commissioners that explains why the Executive Director's decision should be overturned and why the Lease should not be terminated. Following the hearing, the Board of Commissioners shall decide whether to uphold the decision of the Executive Director or not. Participant(s) shall be informed of the Board of Commissioners' decision within 24 hours following the Appeal Hearing. The decision of the Board of Commissioners is final. If the Board of Commissioners decides to uphold the decision of the Executive Director, Participant(s) shall vacate the unit by the date indicated in the Notice of Termination.
    - c. If the Participant(s) fails to submit a Grievance Letter and does not vacate the unit by the date indicated in the Notice of Termination, if the Participant(s) fail to submit an Appeal Letter after an unfavorable decision by the Executive Director in regards to the Grievance Hearing and does not vacate the unit by the date indicated in the Notice of Termination. After receipt of the Grievance decision, or if the Participant(s) does not vacate the unit by the date indicated in the Notice of Termination after receipt of the Board's Appeal Decision, the HASNOK shall commence termination and eviction procedures in a court of competent jurisdiction.
3. Participant(s) whose conduct constitutes fraud or presents an imminent threat to the health, safety, and/or welfare of others shall not be entitled to the due process standards set forth in this Section. Instead, the HASNOK shall immediately commence termination and eviction procedures in a court of competent jurisdiction.

4. If the Participant(s) receives three (3) letters of non-compliance, the HASNOK may issue a Notice of Termination of Lease, and commence eviction procedures in accordance with Section (E) (2), above.

F. Enforcement Subsequent to Court Action. The following provisions apply to the collection of any court-ordered payments due to the HASNOK:

1. Repayment of delinquent amounts subsequent to a court order shall be in full.
2. The HASNOK may collect judgment debts from previous or current Participant(s) by:
  - a. Garnishing wages; and/or
  - b. placing liens on property.
3. Should written arrangements be made and the provisions thereof breached, the account may be referred to an attorney without further notice or action on the part of the HASNOK.

G. Additional Payments Due To the HASNOK. Additional charges that shall be assessed to the Participant include, but are not limited to:

1. Charges for extraordinary maintenance and other services;
2. Repayments of past due accounts;
3. Attorney's fees and court costs; and/or
4. Other charges specified under any applicable tribal, State or federal laws or regulation(s).

H. Abandonment. In the event that a Program unit is abandoned, the HASNOK shall post a notice of abandonment prominently on the door of the unit. If the Participant does not contact the HASNOK within ten (10) days of the date of the notice, the HASNOK may assume possession of the Program unit without further notice or court proceedings. The HASNOK does not waive any claim for past rent, damages or other amounts that may be due to the HASNOK by assuming possession of the premises.

I. Prohibition against Future Occupancy. Former participants who have been evicted from or abandoned a HASNOK property are prohibited from residing in another HASNOK property, unless or until all amounts owed to HASNOK are paid in full AND the former participants' residency is approved by the Executive Director.

SECTION 15

B. Confidentiality. Pursuant to Part 256 of 25 CFR, all information obtained by the HASNOK in order to establish suitability for program participation shall be kept strictly confidential. Additional disclosures of the information may occur during program reviews or audits, investigations by authorized law enforcement personnel or as necessary to comply with any reporting requirements of the Nation or its funding agencies.

C. Limitation of Liability; Indemnification. The HASNOK and/or the Nation shall not be liable to the Participant or any of the Participant's household members, visitors or patrons for any damage to person or property caused by any action, omission or negligence of the Participant or any other Participant of the project.
